G.D. VAJRA 'BRICCO DELLE VIOLE'

nebbiolo | 2019 | barolo, italy | 172

Since 1968, when 15-year-old Aldo Vajra was first banished to his grandfather's Barolo property, the family has been an icon of the Barolo region. Aldo's principles of innovation have been carried on by his wife, Milena, and his children Giuseppe, Francesca, and Isidoro. "Bricco delle Viole" is one of their top vineyards, and year after year it represents the floral-driven complexity that Barolo lovers have come to love and enjoy.

MAGNUM BOTTLES [1.5 LITERS]

After the cork was discovered in the mid-1700s, winemakers began to experiment with different wine bottle sizes. ‘Magnum’ was one of the first bottle sizes to be made when the idea of large bottles was conceived.

Not all wines and vintages are produced in magnum size. A large format bottle is usually reserved only for exceptional wines and vintages.
